

The Do not Call list has helped at my home dramatically. We would get calles durring all hours of the day. Morning evening even after Midnight. They have no regard for the people. If you overturn the Do Not Call List it will show they you also do not care for the people at home and shows it is all for money.